Trinity Counseling Center

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 requires that the Trinity Counseling Center not deny services to any citizen on the grounds of race, color, sex, national origin, religion, or handicap.

As a client you have the right to:

- Prompt, confidential and respectful response by a trained professional.
- Know where you are in the treatment process including probable length of treatment.
- Obtain a copy of your treatment plan.
- Know fees and billing procedures at the clinic.
- Request a different therapist after discussing that request with your present therapist. You may meet with the Administrative Director if you are not in agreement with your therapist's decision.
- Know that your records will be kept in locked storage not to be shared with anyone not affiliated with the Center, without your written permission unless court ordered or where reporting of an extreme risk to life or child abuse is required by Oregon laws.
- Refuse treatment unless court ordered without losing the right to other appropriate treatment, if available. This includes the right to know what will happen if you do not accept treatment,
- Submit complaints about services to the Administrative Director.
- Have access to the information contained in your record. To review you record, make arrangements with your therapist.
- The right to privacy, with the exception to confidentiality of information obtained in the course of services that included the following:
  1. Reporting suspected child abuse
  2. Reporting imminent danger of client to self or others
  3. Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company or other relevant agencies
  4. Licensee consultation or supervision
  5. Defense of claims brought by client against licensee
  6. Reporting disclosure by client of intent to commit a crime, which would result in the harm of others
- To be free from being the object of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, or other unlawful category while receiving services.

As a client you have the responsibility to:

- Keep appointments or cancel at least 24 hours in advance.
- Take medications as prescribed
- Pay bills and inform therapist and receptionist of changes in financial status that would affect your fee or changes in address or telephone number.
- Be an active participant in your treatment planning.
- Review with your therapist how you are progressing in treatment.
- Not drop out of treatment without having an appointment with your therapist to discuss those plans.

I have read the above information and understand my rights and responsibilities. I seek and consent to therapeutic services of the Trinity Counseling Center.

NOTICE OF FEES FOR COURT/LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

September 1, 2017

If a therapist receives a subpoena or court order, or is requested to appear for any court proceedings and/or prepare supporting documentation, those services are not included in client's therapy session fees and not billable to insurance for reimbursement. The following fee schedule will be implemented for all legal services beyond the scope of client/therapist out-patient office visits.

All state and professional psychotherapist-patient privilege will be followed without exception. It is in the best interest of most clients to NOT request their therapist to appear or provide documentation in a court matter. The therapist is not an expert witness, and will only provide the court or legal representative with their professional opinion based on the information presented during therapy. No opinion as to custody will be given by the therapist: they are not a child custody evaluator. Only information that has been released by the client will be provided unless information is compelled into testimony by legal action. Even though the client is responsible for the testimony related fees, it does not mean any testimony will be solely in their favor. If a therapist is seeing a couple separately or a minor, requesting testimony can adversely affect the current therapeutic relationship. Therefore, we strongly discourage any client or related party to request testimony or psychotherapy records.

**Subpoena or notice to meet attorney(s) is to be served during office hours and with 72 hours notice. If notice is not given in that time frame, an additional $300 expedite fee will be applied.*

If a therapist is requested to participate in any legal proceedings, the following fees apply and will be assessed if therapist is scheduled for court on client behalf, and is not contingent upon any actual participation or testimony:

- Preparation Time (including submission of records) @ $220/hr
- Phone Calls: $220/hr
- Time required in giving testimony: $250/hr
- Mileage: $0.40/mile
- Time away from office due to depositions or testimony: $220/hr
- All attorney fees and costs that are incurred by the therapist as a result of the legal action
- Filing documents with the court: $100
- The minimum charge for a court appearance: $1500 (via cashier's check)

A retainer of $1500 is due at least 72 business hours before the scheduled court appearance.

The remainder of the costs will be billed after court appearance and will be due upon receipt.

If the therapist is subpoenaed and the case is reset with less than 72 business hours notice prior to the beginning of the day of the scheduled subpoena, trial, and/or the testimony is not given, then the client will be charged $500 (in addition to original retainer of $1500 for having to appear in court)

If therapist has to change vacation plans due to scheduled appearance, all fees will be assessed at 200% of stated fees.

Electronic Communication Consent Form

1. Risk of Using Email and Text Communication

The transmission of client information by email and/or texting has a number of risks that clients should consider prior to the use of email and/or texting. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks:

- Emails and texts can be circulated, forwarded, stored electronically and on paper, and broadcast to unintended recipients.
- Emails and text senders can easily misaddress an email or text and send the information to an undesired recipient.
- Backup copies of emails and texts may exist even after the sender and/or the recipient has deleted his or her copy.
- Employers and online services have a right to inspect emails sent through their company systems.
- Emails and texts can be intercepted, altered, forwarded or used without authorization or detection.
- Emails and texts can be used as evidence in court.
- Emails and texts should be assumed to be unencrypted and, therefore, it is possible that the confidentiality of such communications may be breached by a third party.

2. Conditions for the Use of Email and Text Communication

- Email and texting is not appropriate for urgent or emergency situations. Provider cannot guarantee that any particular email and/or text will be read and responded to within any particular period of time.
- Email and texts should be concise. The client/responsible party should call and/or schedule an appointment to discuss complex and/or sensitive situations.
- Emails may be printed and filed into the client's medical record. Texts may be printed and filed as well
- Provider will not forward client's/responsible party's identifiable emails and/or texts without the client's/responsible party's written consent, except as authorized by law
- Clients/responsible parties should not use email or texts for communication of sensitive personal information
- Provider is not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by the client/responsible party or any third party.

3. Client Acknowledgement and Agreement

I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand this consent form. I understand the risks associated with communication using email and/or texts between associates of Trinity Counseling Center and me, and consent to the conditions as outlined, as well as any other instructions that may be imposed to communicate with me by email or text.

Client Name: _____ / SIGNATURE _____ (required)

Email: _____ / Mobile #: _____ / DATE: _____

I do NOT consent to the use of email or text message communications

I have read this document in full and agree to the terms and conditions. (required)

By default, all client balance notices are sent via text or email. To receive a paper statement you must contact our office. Thank you.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

January 1, 2023

This notice tells you how our associates or office make use of your health information, how either might disclose your health information to others, and how you can get access to the same information.

Please review this notice carefully and feel free to ask for clarification about anything in this material you might not understand. The privacy of your health information is very important to all of us and we want to do everything possible to protect that privacy.

Each therapist and associate have a legal responsibility under the laws of the United States and the state of Oregon to keep your health information private. Part of our responsibility is to give you this notice about our privacy practices. Another part of our responsibility is to follow the practices in this notice.

We have the right to change any of these privacy practices as long as those changes are permitted or required by law.

Any changes in our privacy practices will affect how we protect the privacy of your health information. This includes health information we will receive about you or that we create here at Trinity Counseling Center. These changes could also effect how we protect the privacy of any of your health information we had before the changes.

When we make any of these changes, we will also change this notice and give you a copy of the new notice if you request.

When you are finished reading this notice, you may request a copy of it at no charge to you.

If you request a copy of this notice at any time in the future, we will give you a copy at no charge to you.

If you have any questions or concerns about the material in this document, please ask us for assistance which we will provide at no charge to you.

Here are some examples of how we use and disclose information about your health information.

We may use or disclose your health information verbally or in writing (including electronic communications)...

1. To your physician or other healthcare provider who is also treating you.
2. To any Trinity associate involved in your treatment program.
3. To any person required by federal, state, or local laws to have lawful access to your treatment program.

Trinity Counseling Center

4. To receive payment from a third party payer for services provided for you.
5. To our own associates in connection with our Center's operations. Examples of these include, but are not limited to the following: evaluating the effectiveness of our associates, supervising our associates, improving the quality of our services, meeting accreditation standards, and in connection with licensing, credentialing, or certification activities.
6. To anyone you give us written authorization to have your health information, for any reason you want. You may revoke this authorization in writing anytime you want. When you revoke an authorization it will only effect your health information from that point on.
7. To a family member, a person responsible for your care, or your personal representative in the event of an emergency. If you are present in such a case, we will give you an opportunity to object. If you object, or are not present, or are incapable of responding, we may use our professional judgment, in light of the nature of the emergency, to go ahead and use or disclose your health information in your best interest at that time. In so doing, we will only use or disclose the aspects your health information that are necessary to respond to the emergency.
8. To anyone to whom we are required to submit information in compliance with the laws and regulations of the State of Oregon.

We will not use your health information in any of our Center's marketing, development, public relations, or related activities without your written authorization.

We cannot use or disclose your health information in any ways other than those described in this notice unless you give us written permission. As a client of Trinity Counseling Center's associates, you have these important rights:

- A. With limited exceptions, you can make a written request to inspect your health information that is maintained by us for our use.
- B. You can ask us for photocopies of the information in part "A" above.
- C. We will charge you $30 first 10 pages, $0.50 per page 11-50, $0.25 51+ for making these photocopies. Actual costs of preparing an explanation or summary, and any postage will be at an additional fee. See Oregon 192.563 for additional information.
- D. You have a right to a copy of this notice at no charge.
- E. You can make a written request to have us communicate with you about your health information by alternative means, at an alternative location. (An example would be if your primary language is not spoken at this Center, and we are treating a child of whom you have lawful custody.) Your written request must specify the alternative means and location.
- F. You can make a written request that we place other restrictions on the ways we use or disclose your health information. We may deny any or all of your requested restrictions. If we agree to these restrictions, we will abide by them in all situations except those which, in our professional judgment, constitute an emergency.

Trinity Counseling Center

- G. You can make a written request that we amend the information in part “A” above.
- H. If we approve your written amendment, we will change our records accordingly. We will also notify anyone else who may have received this information, and anyone else of your choosing.
- I. If we deny your amendment, you can place a written statement in our records disagreeing with our denial of your request.
- J. You may make a written request that we provide you with a list of those occasions where we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes other than treatment, payment, or our Center’s operations. This can go back as far as six years, but not before April 14, 2003.
- K. If you request the accounting in “J” above more than once in a 12 month period we may charge you a fee based on our actual costs of tabulating these disclosures.
- L. If you believe we have violated any of your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we have made about any of your rights in this notice, you may complain to us in writing to the following person:

Gabriel McCoy, LMFT Clinical Director

Telephone: (541) 245-2787

Fax: (541) 201-8103

Address: Trinity Counseling Center
815 E. Jackson St., Medford, OR 97504

- M. You may also submit a written complaint to the United States Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with that address upon written request.

**please note: all associates with Trinity Counseling Center, LLC are independent contractors. All associates are governed by the appropriate state licensing board, and are covered by their own professional liability insurance, and are responsible for client’s records. Requests for client files or records will need to be directed to client’s therapist.*
